THE HAGIA SOPHIA

of the Western American Diocese

Welcome to the Sebastian Press Publishing House
of the Western Diocese!

Founded in 2006 and named in honor of a first American born Orthodox priest, Fr. Sebastian Dabovic, a pioneer of the Orthodox Church in the West, Sebastian Press is one of the largest and most active publishers of Christian Orthodox publications on the West Coast.

Our hard working staff seeks to fruitfully enrich and deepen the faith of Christians from all over the world with a variety of titles, embracing a diversity of Orthodox Traditions, while also presenting the works of Serbian theologians.

Sebastian Press is building its reputation for promoting high quality theological, historical, ecclesiastical, spiritual, hagiographical, iconographical, philosophical and patristic writings in its repertoire. Also, due to growing demand, we are giving special attention to the publishing of new titles for children, teens, and families, including video and audio programs.

The primary mission of Sebastian Press is to motivate and inspire its readers to seek a deeper union with the God-Man, through the written word of Orthodox Christian material, both on the scholarly and popular level, and to give glory to the life-giving Trinity.

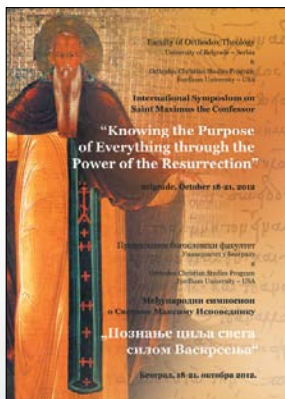

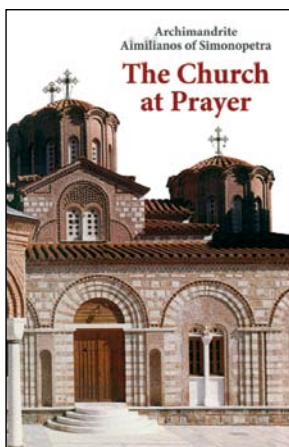

Sebastian Press is located in Los Angeles, at the headquarters of the Western Diocese of the Serbian Orthodox Church!

1. THE CHURCH AT PRAYER

Archimandrite Aimilianos
of Simonopetra

The works collected in this volume reflect the importance which the Elder consistently attached to prayer, spirituality, community life, worship, and liturgy. In a simple and yet compelling manner Elder Aimilianos sets forth the conditions for “ascending to heaven on the wings of the Spirit”.

price $15

2. KNOWING THE PURPOSE OF CREATION THROUGH THE RESURRECTION PROCEEDINGS OF THE SYMPOSIUM ON ST MAXIMUS THE CONFESSOR BELGRADE 18-21 OCTOBER 2012

Edited by Bishop Maxim (Vasiljević)

Thirty studies have been gathered in the present volume that bring to light new evidence, new readings of texts, or new interpretive paradigms, by which the relation between Christianity in antiquity and in the twenty-first century can be profitably explored.

price $40

3. THEOLOGICAL DISAMBIGUATIONS

An Unconventional Handbook of Orthodox Theology

Fr. Vladan Perišić

The eighteen essays collected here treat diverse topics, from academic theology (and its place in the Church) to questions of life and death, from historically oriented studies, on Sts Ignatius and Gregory Palamas, to contemporary issues, such as human rights and ecology.

price $20

4. TREASURES NEW AND OLD

Writings by and about St. Nikolai Velemirovich

The collected texts provide an extensive overview of Saint Nikolai's life, present important testimonies about his personality, and offer essential insights into his theology. It also contains Nikolai's own important writings.

price $18

5. HISTORY, TRUTH, HOLINESS:

Studies in Theological Ontology and Epistemology

Bishop Maxim Vasiljevic

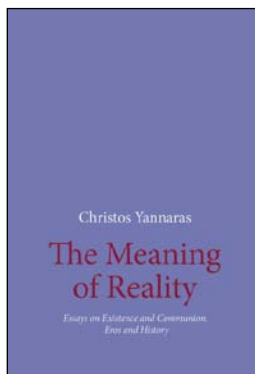

What does freedom mean? Why does love expressed through freedom mark the beginning of the advancement for which we were made? How does this theosis, an earnest indemnity against corruption and decay wherein God reveals man as God-like, reveal the image of the Triadic hypostases that willingly share their life, being, relation, and communion with us?

price $20

6. THE MEANING OF REALITY: Essays on Existence and Commu- nion, Eros and History

Christos Yannaras

No fewer than twenty articles of passionate significance and substance have at present been gathered together in this volume. Yannaras' principal resource for unveiling the meaning of existence and communion is the Trinitarian God as the causal principle of existential freedom.

price $24

7. HAGIA SOPHIA: The Mystical Light of the Great Church and Its Architectural Dress

Charalambos P. Stathakis

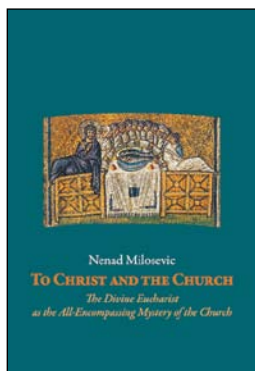

Dear reader, as you run like the rest of us along the dizzy main road, stop, stay aside for a while. Let the others be dizzy, and take the secret underground trail, which will lead you through the dewdrops of the leaves, the crystal smile of the sun, the city's underground galleries, your knowledge, and your feelings, to the doorstep of the Hagia Sophia.

price $18

8. TO CHRIST AND THE CHURCH: Holy Mysteries in the Church in the Holy Eucharist

Nenad Milosevic

This book provides its readers with facts and insights to help them broaden their knowledge, deepen their understanding, and heighten their appreciation of the sacramental life of the Church centered—as the title of his work suggests—on the Divine Liturgy, the sacred rite by which the Orthodox Church celebrates the mystery or sacrament of the holy Eucharist.

price $20

9. THE ONE AND THE MANY: Studies on God, Man the Church, and the World Today

John D. Zizioulas, Metropolitan of Pergamon

This volume offers a collection of Zizioulas articles which have appeared mostly in English, and which present his Trinitarian doctrine of God, as well as his theological account of the Church as the place in which freedom and communion are actualized. Available in hardcopy, too.

price $35

10. SAILORS OF THE SKY A conversation with Fr. Stamatis Skliris and Fr. Marko Rupnik on contemporary Christian art

Here we find answers to questions on the crisis of contemporary ecclesiastical art in West and East; the impact of Impressionism, Expressionism, Cubism, Surrealism and Abstract painting on contemporary ecclesiastical painting; and a consideration of the main distinction between iconography and secular painting.

price $18

11. THE PROLOGUE OF OHRID

Saint Nicholai of Zica

This inspirational source-book of the Orthodox Faith contains within its pages a summation of the Church's wisdom and Her experience of sanctity through the Grace of Jesus Christ. The lives of Saints, Hymns, Reflections, and Homilies are presented for every day of the year.

Two vol. set price $120

12. CHRIST, THE ALPHA AND OMEGA

Bishop Athanasius Yevtich

Focusing on themes central to Christian patristic Triadology, Ecclesiology and Anthropology, the book reveals the ultimate purpose of man and the universe, and speaks of how each of us can realize this purpose within the divine-human community of the Orthodox Church.

price $20

13. EMMANUEL: The Only Begotten and Firstborn among Many Brethren

Bishop Athanasius Yevtich

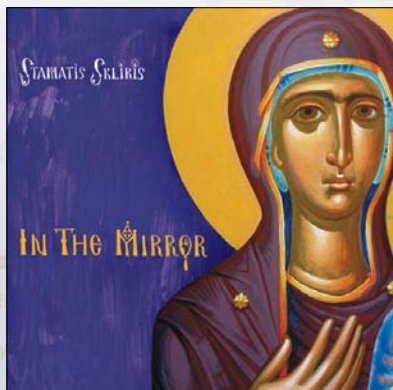

His Grace explores themes of Orthodox Christology, soteriology, Ecclesiology, and epistemology. How can we know Who God is? How can we know who we are, as human persons created in His image and likeness? How can we become one with Him?

price $20

14. IN THE MIRROR: A Collection of Iconographic Essays and illustrations

Fr. Stamatis Skliris

This collection of iconographic essays and illustrations by Fr. Stamatis Skliris is an anthology of his articles, translated into English, in which he combines adherence to the teachings of the Church Fathers with a vibrant expression of faith through the experience of Christ in the Church.

price $40

15. MAN AND THE GOD –MAN Archimandrite Justin Popovich

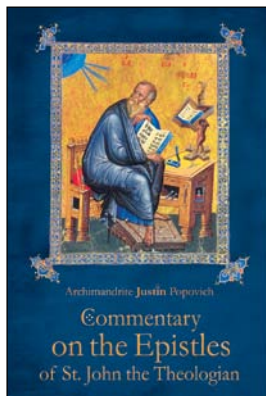

Father Justin Popovich, pan-orthodox witness to the God-revealed and Christ-given Eternal Truth, whose testimony can be even seen within this collection of his articles—that the mystery of Truth is not in material things, not in ideas, not in symbols, but in Personhood, namely the Theanthropic Person of the Lord Christ, Who said: I am the Truth (John 14:6), Truth perfect, never diminished, always one and the same in its complete fullness—yesterday, today, and forever (Heb.13:8).

price $15

16. COMMENTARY ON THE EPISTLES of St. John the Theologian Archimandrite Justin Popovich

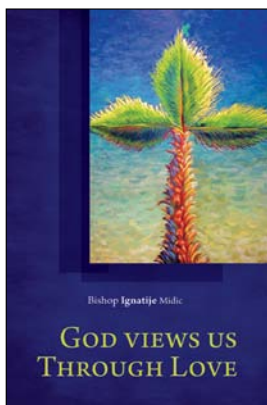

This Commentary on the Epistles of St. John the Theologian was written by the tireless Messenger of Christ forty years ago, in circumstances similar to those in which Christ's Holy Evangelist John wrote his sacred Epistles.

price $18

17. GOD VIEWS US THROUGH LOVE Ignatije (Midic) Bishop of Brаницeво-Pozarevac

The present volume collects essays and articles written by Bishop Ignatije on man within history and within the Church; on the roots of the Church according to Saint Maximus the Confessor; on how God views us through love; about a call to rediscover our true self in our neighbor; on reconciliation in society and policy; on iconising that which is to come seen in the Iconography of Stamatis Skliris.

price $15

18. MY BROTHER'S KEEPER: Human Dignity, Freedom and Rights from the Perspective of the Orthodox Church

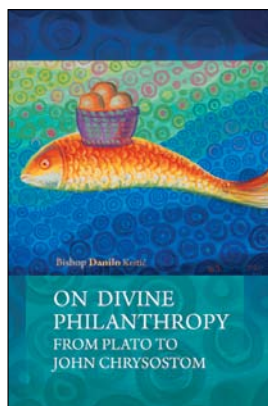

Fr. Radovan Bigović

In this book, the reader will find a faithful engagement with the liturgical and patristic traditions, with contemporary thinkers, Orthodox and non-Orthodox, all in conversation with political science and philosophy. As an excellent Orthodox theologian and a proponent of dialogue, rooted in the catholic (holistic) being of the Orthodox Church and of his Serbian people, Fr Radovan offers a methodology that encompasses the abovementioned concerns and quests.

price $20

19. ON DIVINE PHILANTHROPY from Plato to John Chrysostom Bishop Daniel Krstic

In this meandric study the author has detected the semantic changes and enrichment of the notion of divine philanthropia—from Aeschylus and Plato, through Philo the Jew and later pagan and Christian writers, down to Themistius of Byzantium and Chrysostom.

price $16

20. NOTES ON ECUMENISM

St. Abba Justin

It is easy to perceive that Father Justin while criticizing western type of ecumenism rejects neither the very notion of Ecumenism nor the term itself, but rather renders it orthodox (orthodoxizes it) churchifies, christifies, theohumanizes it and instead of false, bare humanistic [ecumenism], puts forward Orthodox, Evangelical, Theanthropic Ecumenism, wherein Christ in the Church, and in the Unity and Catholicity (Sobornost) of the Orthodox Church, is in the center of all and everything. price $7

21. THE PRESENCE OF TRANSCENDENCE: Essays on Facing the Other through Holiness, History and Text Bogoljub Sijakovic

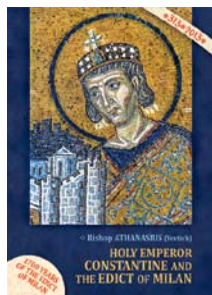

The essays collected in this book venture into various domains of philosophy, such as ontology and epistemology, anthropology and ethics, philosophy of history and history of philosophy, philosophy of religion and theory of the mystical, poetics and hermeneutics.

price $20

23. HOLY EMPEROR CONSTANTINE AND THE EDICT OF MILAN

Bishop Athanasius Yevtich

The publication of this beautiful pocket-size, full-color, English-language book, has been compiled and designed by Bishop Athanasius Yevtich, a disciple of the great twentieth-century theologian Archimandrite Justin Popovich. Bishop Athanasius' thought combines adherence to the teachings of the Church Fathers with a vibrant faith, knowledge of history, and a profound experience of Christ in the Church. The book is available in bilingual, Serbian and English, version.

price $5

24. JESUS CHRIST IS THE SAME YESTERDAY TODAY AND UNTO THE AGES

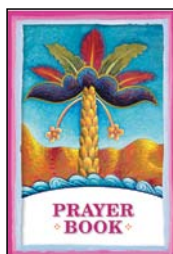

Bishop Athanasius Yevtich

For us in the XXI century, it is important to highlight that the experience/event of Yahweh as Christ is experienced by every era within its own context. This book, concerning the historical-eschatological Name of Yahweh, points out the wondrous synthesis gifted to us by the biblical and classical Greek understanding of Truth.

price $15

26. PRAYER BOOK

A beautiful pocket-size, full-color English-language prayer book; it contains prayers commonly used by Orthodox Christians, lists of Scriptural Commandments, brief articles on the precepts of Faith, proper conduct in church, and the meaning and practice of prayer. It is adorned with striking icons and illustrations by Fr. Stamatis Skliris, a parish priest in Athens who is a renowned iconographer and a writer and lecturer on Byzantine iconography.

price $4

25. THE HISTORY OF THE SERBIAN WESTERN AMERICAN DIOCESE Edited by Bishop Maxim
